SUMMARY

As a skilled Software Engineer, I have extensive experience in designing and building robust systems that are ready for production use. I am highly proficient in maintaining application updates, scaling infrastructures, automating tasks, and managing documentation. I possess excellent communication skills and can easily convey complex technical information to non-technical stakeholders.

My expertise includes several programming languages such as JavaScript, HTML, CSS, ReactJS, Ruby on Rails, and MYSQL. Additionally, I continuously strive to expand my skill set to incorporate emerging technologies. I have a passion for crafting user-friendly UI/UX interfaces and finding innovative solutions to technical challenges.
